

Square Scramble

Practice the most difficult multiplication facts with this Square Scramble puzzle. First, cut the large square apart into nine squares, cutting on the bold lines. Next, scramble up the squares and reassemble them by matching up the products and the factors. There is more than one arrangement that will work.

