

Reading Is So Beautiful based on One Direction's "What Makes You Beautiful"
Lyrics by Jeff Wallowitz Sung by Connor Wallowitz

My reading's pure
And that's for sure
And I got books that are strewn across the floor
When I wake up
Can't get enough
All my reading is the reason I'm so tough

Everyone else in the class is reading
Everyone else but you

Baby those books light me up just like nothing else
Baby when I start to read I get overwhelmed
I start flipping those pages, I do it well
Don't you know, oh oh
Reading is so beautiful

If you read all the books that I can read
You'll understand why I read them so fluently
You know with my comprehension it's plain to see
Don't you know, oh oh
Reading is so beautiful oh oh
Reading is so beautiful

So c-come on
Just read along
To prove I'm right
I put this inside a song
Don't ask me why
Give it a try
Cause reading is the reason that I fly

Everyone else in the class is reading
Everyone else but you

Baby those books light me up just like nothing else
Baby when I start to read I get overwhelmed

I start flipping those pages, I do it well
Don't you know, oh oh
Reading is so beautiful

If you read all the books that I can read
You'll understand why I read them so fluently
You know with my comprehension it's plain to see
Don't you know, oh oh
Reading is so beautiful oh oh
Reading is so beautiful

Read read read read read read read read read read
Read read read read read
Let's read
